June 20, 2019

Dear Senator Rosen,

On behalf of AJC Project Interchange, we are delighted to invite you and your husband to participate in a Delegation in Israel for you and staff members scheduled to depart for Israel on September 1, 2019 and return to the U.S. on September 8, 2019. The delegation is organized and facilitated by American Jewish Committee (AJC) through its non-profit and apolitical educational institute Project Interchange (PI).

This delegation will serve as a comprehensive introduction to Israel. While each itinerary is unique, all programs examine the complex issues facing Israel and the region and include travel to significant historic, political, religious, and cultural sites. Through meetings with Jewish, Arab-Israeli, and Palestinian leaders, senior government officials and academics, NGO representatives, and religious leaders, participants will gain insight into government, security issues and human and civil rights in Israel. The delegation will highlight the topics of immigration, pluralism, and the art of bridging cultures within a politically and ethnically diverse society. Discussions in Ramallah with Palestinian leaders will provide a further range of opinions and perspectives. Each delegation is accompanied by a professional Israeli tour guide and an AJC/PI professional.

This invitation is being extended to a select group and includes round-trip economy class airfare from your nearest international airport to Tel Aviv, ground transportation in Israel, hotel accommodations and most meals. Participants are responsible only for the cost of a few meals, travel expenses to and from your closest international airport, and any personal expenses incurred in Israel. This delegation is intended primarily for first-time visitors to Israel, or those that have not traveled on an educational delegation with a Jewish organization.

We hope you can join us for this truly unique experience in Israel.

Sincerely,

Ura.
